CORAM: R.S. MOHITE, J.
DATED: 17.2.2005.

PC:

1. By this writ petition, the petitioner society through its President challenged an order dated 1.7.2002 passed by the Joint J.M.F.C. by which the police were directed to handover the possession of some documents on record to the opponent. It appears that though this writ petition was filed in the year 2002, against the same order a revision had also been simultaneously filed by the society. This revision application came to be dismissed on 4.12.2003 by the Sessions Court, Satara because President of the society Mr.Bhanudas Maruti Patil had died and the society was not represented. The said order was not challenged. Even today the Advocate for the applicant states that there is none to give instructions. In this view of the matter, petition is dismissed.
